MECHANICAL ARTS

One of the highlights of the opening of the fall semester was the completion of the Mechanical Arts Building situated east of the stadium on the campus.

At a cost of approximately $100,000, the Board of Education furnished modern departments for vocational printing, industrial arts, and machine and auto mechanics classes as well as offices and work areas for the school maintenance personnel.

SELECT LEADERSHIP IN ALL-SCHOOL ELECTION

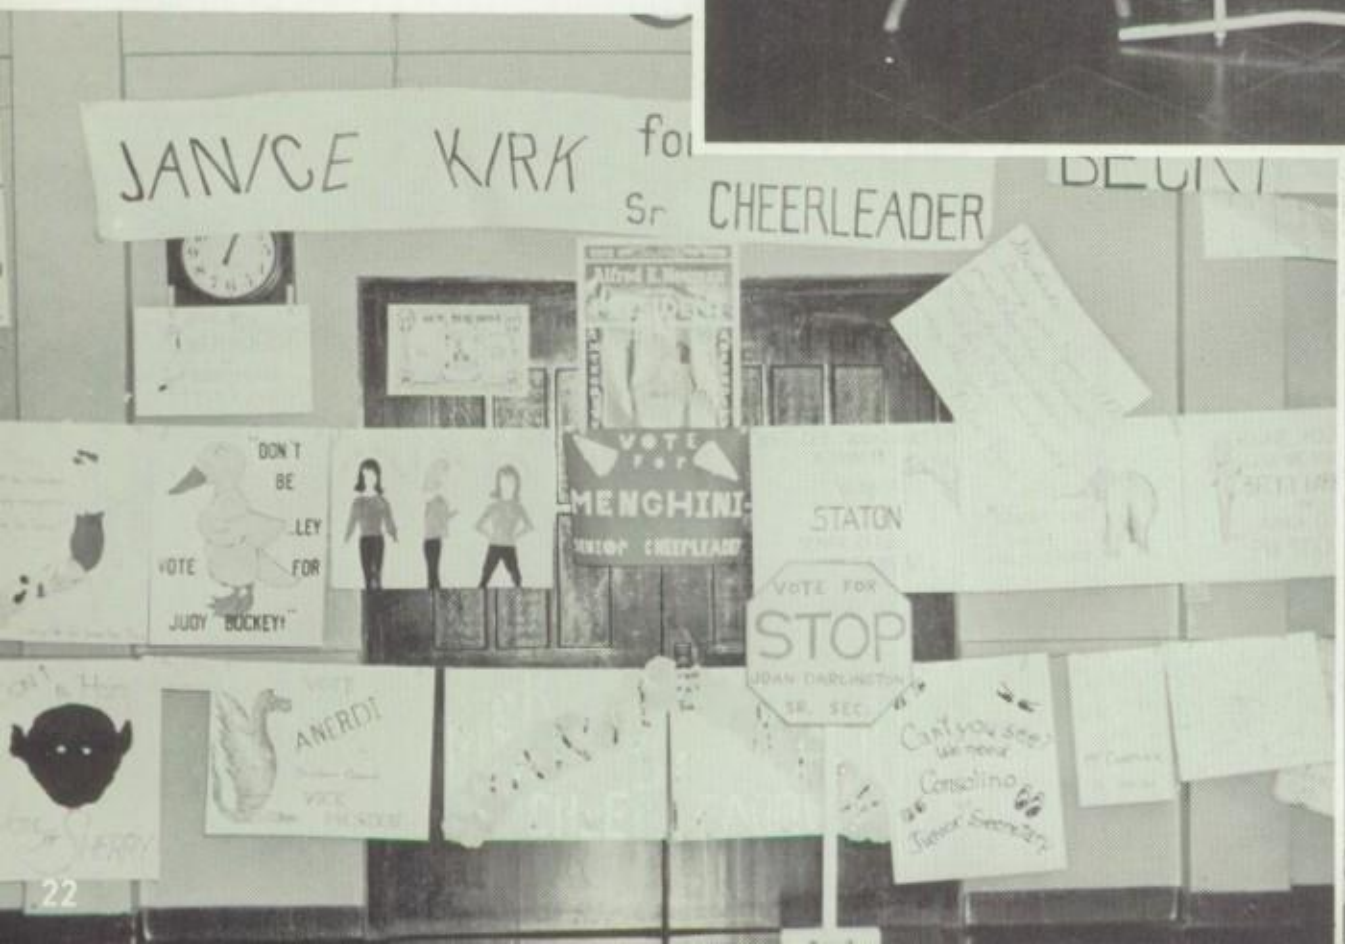
Sophomores mark their ballots.

In the all-school election held September 14 and 15, nearly 100 percent of the student body cast their votes to select student council and class officers and two cheerleaders from each class.

The election was arranged and supervised by Miss Waltz, student council sponsor, and volunteer student groups.

Counting boards tally votes cast by the student body.

Colorful posters decorate the front hall during the campaign.



HI-Y , Y-TEENS ENTERTAIN NEW STUDENTS

Approximately 400 students and faculty members gathered on Hutchinson Field for the annual Hi-Y and Y-Teen Mixer which opened the social program at PHS.

Purpose of the mixer was to welcome the incoming sophomores and new students.

Program for the evening included games, contests, and a group sing. Refreshments of pop and doughnuts served by the host groups completed an evening of good fellowship.

Hosts greet their guests.

The crowd gathered quickly around the refreshment tables.

RALLIES STIR PEP

Believe it or not, this is Max Lundquest, industrial arts instructor!

Pep rallies, planned and presented by various clubs and homerooms assisted by the cheerleaders and the Pep Band, stir enthusiasm before home football and basketball games.

Skits have varied from mock games and TV shows to a funeral complete with corpse and mourners.

When the weather was suitable, the cheerleaders frequently called the student body to a rally on the front steps during the noon hour. The bon-fire and snake dance are traditional preparations for the Columbus-Pittsburg Coal Bucket game.

Senior girls meet Fort Scott on the gridiron in a pep assembly.

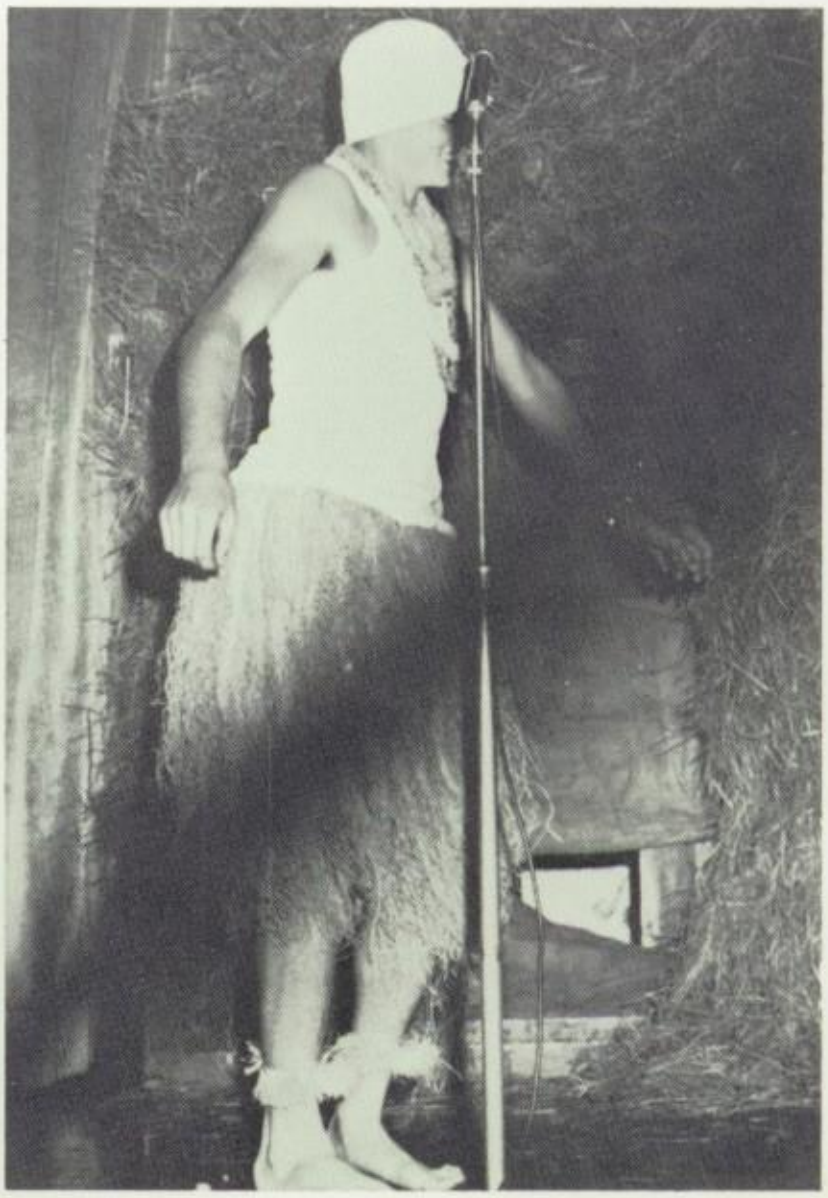
Cheerleaders rouse the student body to rally on the front steps at noon.

VARIETY SHOW REVEALS TALENT

The music department discovers some talent each year in the variety show which they sponsor. The school is thoroughly canvassed for acts to make up an evening of entertainment.

Proceeds from the show help defray expenses of music groups which travel to contests and clinics during the year.

Three senior girls present a pantomime.



Gary Browning does the hula.

The PHS Dance Band furnished background music for the evening.

PARENTS VISIT SCHOOL

On Wednesday evening, November 9, Senior High held its annual open house in observance of National Education Week.

The parents and friends assembled in the auditorium for a short program of music by the high school choir and greetings from The American Legion.

Following the program parents were invited to tour the building and to visit with the teachers. Refreshments were served in the library.

Students served as guides for visitors.

Paul Wilbert, a representative of The American Legion, addressed the parents.

Superintendent Earl Bevan and Principal John England greeted the guests.

Many parents visited the newly equipped biology classroom.

FALL SOCIAL ACTIVITIES INCLUDE CLASS PARTIES

Sophomores line up for refreshments after an evening of games and stunts typical of Hallowe'en.

Carolyn Brown and Kim Bartlow reign as king and queen at "Reindeer Romp," senior class Christmas party.

Dancing and games furnished entertainment for the junior class party.

Queen Deanna Packard and her attendants Patty Sinn and Judy Menghini reigned over 1960 homecoming festivities on October 12 at Senior High. John Clark, Dragon captain, crowned the queen in appropriate ceremonies at halftime of the PHS-Columbus football game on Hutchinson Field.

Escorts for the occasion were Robert Viets, president of the student council; George Lampe, student council vice-president; and Gilbert Viets, NFL president.

Following the game, the Blue Notes furnished music for a dance which honored alumni and royalty.

All arrangements for the homecoming festivities were made by the student council under the direction of Miss Waltz.

STIR PEP FOR COAL BUCKET GAME

The pep rally for the annual clash between PHS and Columbus began with a bonfire held on the practice field.

Dragons build up spirit before the game which is a high point of the football season.

After holding the coal bucket for ten consecutive years, the Dragons surrendered the trophy to Columbus when they were defeated in the annual football game.

For sixteen of the twenty-three years since the Lions Club presented the trophy, it has occupied an important place in the PHS trophy case.

FHA ENTERTAINS DISTRICT CONVENTION

TOP ROW: Bonnie Hultz, Janice Reed, Jan Trowbridge, Nancy Dickerson.

FRONT: Jean Marie Roach, Ruth Friend, Judy Umbarger, Mary Ann Harden.

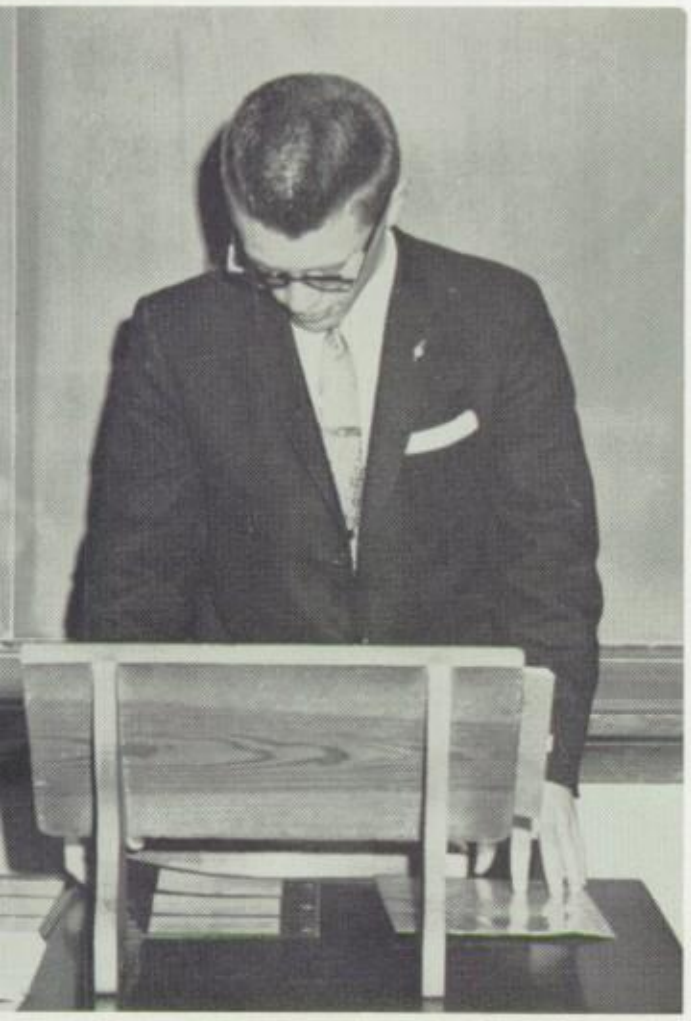
Local members of FHA entertained approximately 500 delegates from other area high schools at the fall conference of Future Homemakers of America. Meetings for the one-day affair were held in the Senior High School with a luncheon served at noon in the Methodist Church.

The day's program opened with a mixer in Roosevelt Gym. The Chetopa chapter was responsible for the entertainment, and the College High chapter served refreshments.

Theme of the conference was "You and Your Family, Today and Tomorrow." Guest speakers were Dr. Robert Noble of KSC and Kermit Oaks of Emporia.

Local FHA members await the arrival of out-of-town guests.

ANNUAL DEBATE TOURNEY DRAWS SIXTY TEAMS



A debater searches his notes.

NFL members welcomed visiting debate teams as they arrived to register for the annual tournament.

The seventh annual PHS Debate Tournament was held in December with Bruno E. Jacob, secretary of the National Forensic League, as guest of honor.

Twenty-five schools entered sixty teams in the meet. College High of Pittsburg took first place, and Hutchinson won second place.

Dan Tewell, PHS coach, was in charge of all arrangements.

Debate coaches found time to relax and to exchange ideas during the tournament. A tea, served by high school foods classes, was a high point in activities for coaches and chaperons.

HONOR BASKETBALL QUEEN

Captain Gary Allen escorts Queen Janice to the throne.

Janice Kirk was crowned queen of the 1960-61 basketball season at half-time ceremonies of the Pittsburg-Independence game on February 10. Gary Allen, Dragon captain, crowned the queen.

Judy Buckley and Sandy Coffman, royal attendants, were escorted by George Lampe and Bill Gill. Robert Viets, president of the student council was the queen's escort. Following the coronation in which cheerleaders and majorettes participated, the queen and her court took their places on the royal platform.

Music for the dance which followed the game was furnished by the PHS Dance Band.

Candidates for royal honors were nominated by the basketball team and elected by the student body.

Miss Waltz and members of the student council were in charge of all arrangements for the occasion.

The student council is the first representative organization to begin its work in the fall. The council represents every student, and those who participate get practical experience in the activities organized by the council. Each representative elected by his homeroom must maintain a satisfactory scholastic standing and meet the requirements of proper attitude and service.

The all-school election is the earliest project of the council. This election provides leadership for students who get experience in citizenship and service. Other activities include the publication of the student handbook and the planning of the annual homecoming activities.

Council members assist at football and basketball games by handing out programs.

Through the council, students can express ideas helpful to the management of the school. The council can then put these ideas to work and thus sustain a spirit of understanding between the administration and students.

The council is divided into five committees: courtesy, social, activities, safety, and publicity.

Meetings are held each Tuesday at activity period.

Y-TEENS

BETTY KEITH, President

The Y-Teens, an organization of more than 250 girls, places emphasis on spiritual growth, service to others, and fellowship. The organization meets each Thursday during activity period either in its committee groups or in general assembly.

Programs for the year are varied. Those with religious emphasis include the recognition service for members, a special Christmas program, and an all-school assembly at Easter time. The club also cooperates with the college in observance of religious emphasis week.

Service to others is an important factor in the work of the group. The entire organization adopted a cottage of retarded children at the state hospital in Parsons. This project began in January and continued until September. The girls made dolls and scrapbooks which were distributed to the children for Christmas.

Social functions included the all-school mixer sponsored by the Hi-Y and the Y-Teens, a backward Christmas party, caroling, and the mother-daughter tea.

Several money-making projects were conducted by the finance committee. During the basketball season the girls sold pop and candy in a concession in the lobby of the gym.

The Hi-Y organization of approximately 200 boys and four sponsors is affiliated with the local YMCA and is part of the world-wide movement to further Christian ideas. Purpose of the club is to create, maintain, and extend high standards of Christian character throughout home, school, and community.

Chapter meetings are held each Thursday during the activity period. One meeting each month is reserved for a combined meeting of all groups.

The Hi-Y organization with the Y-Teens sponsor the annual all-school mixer in the fall. Other activities of the group include the Thanksgiving assembly for the entire student body. Local chapters also take part in the pre-legislative conference which is held at the college and the Model Legislature in Topeka.

The chapters have one social function during the year.

The highlight of the PHS debate season was achieved at the District debate tournament when the first team set an all time state record by winning 14 debates and losing none. Larry Mathis and Gary Olson were on the affirmative team, and Robert Viets, Gilbert Viets, and Patty Sinn were members of the negative team. Sandy Coffman was the alternate debater. Robert Viets and Gilbert Viets took third place in the State National Forensic League Tournament.

Bruno Jacob, secretary of the National Forensic League, presented the Pittsburg Senior High School a plaque for outstanding achievement in forensics. This national award was based on the record that PHS debaters had made during the last eight years. Dan J. Tewell, debate coach, was awarded a gold NFL key set with two diamonds. Only one other debate coach in Kansas has received this high national award.

Library Club is composed of those students who are interested in serving their school through improvement and extension of library services. Students can participate in the operation of the library, learn library techniques, and assist in the selection of books.

Club meetings are held on Tuesdays at activity period. Book reviews, discussions of library problems, study of authors, and learning about different kinds of libraries are part of the program.

Daily activities include circulation and shelving of books, typing, mechanical preparation, and mending and cleaning of books. Members may read and report on new books before the books are placed into circulation.

VOCATIONAL PRINTING

JOHN E. WHITE
Instructor

Under the direction of the State Board of Vocational Printing, the print shop provides instruction in press work, typesetting, and linotype operations.

The department prints all school supplies, prepares programs and tickets for school events, and advertises school functions with posters.

Two newspapers—The Booster, a bi-weekly production and the Roosevelt Echo, a quarterly—are printed in the shop.

The new shop building completed this year affords many opportunities for expansion in the department.

SPONSORS

Ernest Nelson ..... Max Struble

The Junior Academy of Science is a club which has been with the school for more than a quarter of a century. Its membership is for those students who are interested in the physical and biological branches of science.

The activities this year make this one of the most successful periods in the history of the club. Membership increased tremendously as did the enthusiasm of the entire club. The group has extended its interests beyond presenting a project at the annual science fair to include lively group discussions, speakers, and outside group projects.

SECOND ROW: Mr. Struble, Ted Snider, Jack Buffington, Jim Cunningham, Dennis Bicknell, Paul Blancett, Jean Cray, Ann Pierce, Mr. Nelson.

OFFICERS

Gary Allen ..... President
Linda Goff ..... Vice-President
Judy Menghini ..... Secretary

SPONSOR
Marion Nation

The purpose of the Junior Red Cross is to help in some small way the work of the American Red Cross.

Each homeroom elects a delegate who becomes a member of the organization. Members meet to learn the principles and work of the Red Cross. They take enrollment and publicity materials to their homerooms where each representative tries to enroll everyone in the Junior Red Cross and to collect a small donation from each one. The drive this year resulted in a substantial sum which was sent to the national organization.

TOP ROW, left to right: Helen Riggs, Marlene Prince, Linda Shelburn, Judy Stumfoll, Geraldine Swafford, Susan Coonrod, Mr. Nation.
